

Dubrovnik Hotel Suggestions for Parents

Inside the Old Town:

Hotel Stari Grad: <https://hotelstarigrad.com/>

St. Josphehs: <https://www.stjosephs.hr/>

Both of these are small/intimate properties in old historic buildings. It's very charming to stay within the Old castle city walls, but July/August are extremely touristy months, so it can get very crowded.

Outside of the Old Town:

Villa Dubrovnik: <https://www.villa-dubrovnik.hr/en/>

This hotel is stunning and luxurious, about 3 miles away from the Old Town. A relaxing way to get away from the crowds and enjoy sea views, but it's very pricey.

The Hilton Imperial: <https://www3.hilton.com/en/hotels/croatia/hilton-imperial-dubrovnik-DBVHIHI/index.html>

This beautiful historic hotel is right outside of the main Old Town entrance (Pile). So you can easily walk into the Old Town but are not directly inside it. It's a great location and usually offers pretty good deals even though it's listed prices are high.

Hotel More: <http://www.hotel-more.hr/>

This hotel is right on the water in a kind of "hidden" area about 2 miles from the Old Town. We used to love to come here to have a coffee and jump right in the sea from the terrace. I think it's charming and local and a little bit away from the crowds.

Rixos Libertas: <http://libertasdubrovnik.rixos.com/>

This is a beautiful hotel right on the water, and less than a mile walk from the Old Town. They have an amazing spa and we used to always go there to use the Turkish baths. Also right next to where the Bellevue Beach tournament will be.

Hotel Lero: <https://hotel-lero.hr/>

This hotel is a Dubrovnik landmark and a really great option at a reasonable price. It's less than a mile walk from the Old Town and has one of our favorite restaurants: Taj Majal.

Hotel Kamara: <http://www.kamaradubrovnik.com/>

I am not personally familiar with this hotel, but apparently it's modern, walking distance to Old Town, has sea views and is a great deal.
